IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.8478 OF 2005

State of Maharashtra .. Applicant

Versus

Devendra Sudam Bankar .. Respondent

Mr.P.S.Hingorani, A.P.P. for applicant

Mr.Sandesh Deshpande for respondent.

CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 11th September 2006.

P.C.

. An order was passed on 29th March 2005 by this Court recording that the respondents would give 72 hours advance notice before they decide to arrest the applicants. However, this Court directed the applicants to cooperate with the investigation and attend police station as and when required.

2. Grievance of Mr.Hingorani, A.P.P. is that thereafter on two occasions respondent was specifically called to attend the concerned police station in C.R.No.132 of 2004. However, he has not attended till date. Mr.Deshpande, learned Advocate appearing for respondents makes a statement that respondents would cooperate with the investigation and would attend police station as and when required and/or directed by this Court and thereafter, as and when summoned by the investigating machinery.

3. In such circumstances, this application for cancellation of bail can be disposed of by directing respondent accused to remain present before I.O. on 19th September 2006 between 5.00 p.m. and 7.00 p.m. and thereafter as and when summoned. Needless to state that in default, it would be open for applicants to apply for appropriate reliefs and disposal of this application shall not constitute a impediment in that behalf.
